

Andrew Bastnagel

Senior Counsel

About

Andrew is a senior counsel at Hilgers Graben. Andrew is an experienced litigator and has represented corporate clients in complex litigation and class action matters in state and federal courts at both the trial and appellate levels. Andrew also has experience representing clients in government investigations and enforcement actions brought by the Department of Justice, the Federal Trade Commission, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, and state attorneys general.

While attending law school, Andrew was Executive Editor of the Catholic University Law Review. Additionally, he worked with CUA's Innocence Project Clinic and Clemency Project investigating claims of actual innocence and assisting individuals with applications for sentence commutation.
