

Katie Ward

Counsel

About

Katie is part of the Hilgers Graben EDGE e-discovery team. Previously, Katie worked at Covington & Burling, where she gained extensive knowledge of electronic document review processes from collection through production. Her litigation and discovery experience includes DOJ civil and criminal investigations, internal investigations, and FTC second requests. Katie's e-discovery experience includes working for multinational companies in a wide range of industries, including entertainment and media, technology, pharmaceutical, and manufacturing. She is skilled in determining responsiveness as well as developing complex privilege logs.

Katie currently resides in Washington, D.C., where she moved to after completing a district court clerkship for the Honorable Barbara R. Hanson (Ret.) in Minnesota.
