Counsel

About

Michael is an experienced attorney with an extensive background in discovery. He began his career at Boies Schiller Flexner, where he successfully represented a high-profile client through complex civil litigation. Since then, Michael has worked for some of the largest international corporations on a wide range of matters, including DOJ civil and criminal investigations, internal investigations, and second requests.

Prior to joining Hilgers Graben, Michael worked at Covington & Burling, where he gained expertise in all facets of electronic discovery, from collection to production. He currently resides in Northern Virginia with his wife and son.
