

Nancy Gude

Counsel

About

Nancy is an experienced attorney who has extensive experience in discovery and complex litigation matters, having worked on a wide range of matters including insurance defense, workers' compensation, personal injury, legal and medical malpractice, patent infringement, anti-trust, FCPA, insider trading, products liability, and governmental investigations regarding banking and pharmaceuticals as well as other highly confidential/sensitive issues.

Nancy also served as a Guardian Ad Litem in Broward County, Florida, for several years where she advocated for the manifest best interests of children in dependency and termination of parental rights proceedings.

Prior to attending law school, Nancy had a successful career in technology with Tribune Company Newspapers.
